

I was born unattractive. I am not the first of my kind, but I will not be the last of my kind. I will be the middle of kind. I will achieve middleness, extreme neutrality, I will be the office worker that does nothing, I will begin a family that have exactly 2 and a half kids, the national average, and I will do everything in my power to remain neutral. And in my last words, it will say, tell my wife it said hello..
